

Arrival - 01 - Away from here

My naked feet
on coal black ground
my eyes don't dare
to take a look around

Tryin' hard not to slow down now
the tortuous path
always the same somehow I feel the presence of someone of something close to me

Then I hear the demons call and I stumble and I fall and I can't get away from here

They tear me over to their side where they're dancing in the light and I can't get away from here

A dark moon hides
behind the trees
the cold wind takes away my memories

A chill crawls deep
under my skin
a sea of shades
I am sinking in
